Damodar Das Scholarship to Mr. Yegnanarayana Iyer is subd. The amount of travelling expenses is not fixed. The sum of £40 entered in the notes of Gov^t file 161-10 is only approximate (vide Mr. Yegnanarayana Iyer's appl^n in that file para 5) From the Comptroller's office it has been ascertained that ~~Rs 664~~ about Rs 664 have been given for passage money from Bombay to London in the case of certain Scholarship holders. This comes to £ 44 and odd.

Mr Y Narayan of Mysore, India has taken special work at the Colorado Agricultural College Mr Narayan came to us in July He first spent some weeks in a study of farm methods, of Pearet Bruding and "Field Plat" testing of crops, of Dry Farming and Irrigation

He then spent one month visiting the experiment stations of the Western and Southern States, returning to us about September 15th From September 15th to October 15, he made a special study of Farm Machinery and Farm Motors, covering, tillage, seeding, harvesting, pumping and special purpose machinery, and steam, gasoline animal and to a slight extent electric motors

Mr Narayan did nearly all of his work in the Department of agronomy I am pleased to say his work has been faithfully and intelligently followed and that he has covered a great deal of ground for the limited time at his disposal
